Final meter read

A final meter read cancels enrolment in the pre-authorized payment program.

Once a final meter read is processed, your enrolment in the program stops. You will receive a regular utility bill and payment must be made by one of the alternative payment options by the due date.

FEES AND CHARGES

If your pre-authorized payment does not clear through your financial institution/bank account, you will be charged an administrative fee and will lose your early payment discount. You will also be automatically removed from the Pre-Authorized Utility Bill Payment Program and be returned to the regular payment plan. Payment must be made by one of the alternative payment options. Visit toronto.ca/utilitybill for bill payment options, information on utility bill fees, solid waste management fees and other associated charges.
